

Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers Tuesday Evening

In an impressive ceremony held Tuesday evening at American Legion clubhouse, Mrs. Mabel Williams of Lomita was installed as president of Bert S. Crossland Unit No. 170, American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Lucille Lewellen, past president of 19th District American Legion Auxiliary, assisted by the Maywood ritualistic and drill team, inducted the officers.

Others officers installed with Mrs. Williams were: Merle Youngken, first vice-president; Maxine Smith, second vice-president; Nettie Babcock, secretary; Selma Goddard, treasurer; Janet Woodington, chaplain; Ruth Saunders, historian, and Alice Thompson, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Williams accepted the gavel of authority from her installing officer and Mrs. Robinson, whose year of service to the unit was one of outstanding merit, was presented with a jeweled past-presidents' pin. She was also the recipient of many personal gifts and flowers from a number of her officers.

Oliva Lee, who has served as rehabilitation chairman for the past five years, was then presented with a gift from the unit and Lucille Lewellen, secretary for the past year was remembered with a gift. Gifts were also exchanged among other officers.

The incoming president, wearing a beautiful orchid corsage, a gift from her son, was then presented with a lovely box of flowers and graciously accepted a gift from the president of Lomita unit of V.F.W. while she in turn, remembered her installing officer with a gift.

At the close of installation rites an enjoyable musical entertainment presented by Mrs. Bea Burchett was followed by a discussion of Legion and Auxiliary problems by Commander-elect Edwin Bird.

An announcement was made of the district pre-convention caucus to be held at Bell, Wednesday, July 31. Delegates to the convention are as follows: Mabel Williams, Oliva Lee and Gertrude Rabston and alternates: Lucille Lewellen, Marie Marsteller and Gertrude Boye.
